

Privacy Statement: CLDF HIVE.

How we use your Personal Information. We may collect your Personal Information (name & HIVE contact details) only for the purpose of being able to contact you if you have not respected the moderation policy and terms and conditions of CLDF social media channels.

Email Communications. We may use your HIVE details to contact you and send details and information about new features and to update you about our services.

How we share your Personal Information. We will not make your Personal Information available to third parties. We may have to share information with agencies in any official investigation if you are at risk of harm or harming others.

Third Party Links. The CLDF social media accounts may contain links to other websites. When you click on one of those links, you are accessing a website that is not owned, operated, or controlled by us or any of our affiliates. The operator of such a site may have its own privacy policy (which we encourage you to read carefully). That policy will govern the collection and use of your data on that site.

Security. We will take reasonable precautions to protect Personal Information from loss and unauthorised access. However, these measures, standing alone, are not sufficient to ensure the security of your Personal Information. It is also important for you to guard against unauthorised access to your passwords and the unauthorised use of your computer.

Changes: CLDF reserves the right to change these Terms at any time. You are expected to check this page from time to time to take notice of any changes we make. Some of the provisions contained in Terms of Service may also be superseded by provisions or notices published elsewhere on our site. Any changes made to these Terms will automatically be effective 30 days after they are posted.
